Greetings from the desk of the President:

I wish everyone a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. Are you ready to make lace this coming year? We have many great programs planned throughout the year, I hope you will make plans to join us. We will start in January with a lesson on making waves designed by Jane Atkinson. We will be making hearts in February and Easter eggs in March. April we will learn a new technique. Want to learn how to choose the correct size pricking for your thread or the correct thread for the pricking? You won't want to miss May's meeting. We will explore Milanese lace beginning in July.

Don't forget to make plans to attend the IOLI convention in July in San Antonio, Texas.

Let us know if there are any ideas you have for programs or events to help promote lacemaking.

Julie

Show Me Web Page:

Kelli has purchased a two year domain for the Show Me Lacemakers web site. Thanks, Kelli.

Next Meeting:

Note the change in date. Our meetings are usually the first Saturday of the month, but we will meet the second Saturday in January with extended hours.

Our January meeting is Making Waves Saturday, January 13, 2018 at the Branson Sewing Center 9am-3pm. Julie took Jane Atkinson's class last July at the IOLI convention and thoroughly enjoyed it. Jane gave the participants verbal permission to present it at their guild meetings, so Julie will be sharing it with you. She will provide copies of the pattern and the metallic thread needed for the workers. You will need to bring threads in ocean colors (any type or thickness), at least 20 pairs of bobbins, pins and a pillow.

Please make plans to join us.

Holly and Kelli are planning to attend. Kelli will bring a pop-up shop with lacemaking supplies like thread, hankies, shuttles, books, and bobbins. This would be a great meeting for you to bring your Christmas money from Santa to buy some supplies for the year.

LOTO and LGO lacemakers, you are welcome to join our meeting. Please let Shirley know if you will be joining us.
